22.10 Optional Action Points Table

Design Note: The results of this optional AP Table are closer to the mathematical theory of probabilities than those of the standard AP Table, giving players a better foundation for planning. On the long run, both tables provide similar Action Points.

The following optional AP Table replaces the standard AP Table when determining APs (10.12). All rules are in effect. Important exception: instead of rolling one ten-sided die once, roll one standard six-sided die twice (or two six-sided dice once).
